

[illegible]

Architectural elevation drawing of the East facade (ALZADO ESTE) of a building. The drawing shows a multi-story structure with a prominent central section featuring a vertical arrangement of rectangular windows. To the right, there is a horizontal extension with a series of small, square windows. The drawing includes various dimension lines and numerical values indicating heights and widths. A human figure is shown at the bottom left for scale. The title "ALZADO ESTE" is written vertically on the left side.

